Second Public Meeting Planned on Future of Indian Springs Site

The Unified Government will host a second meeting on Wednesday, April 19th at 6:00 pm to discuss future development plans for the Indian Springs site.

The public meeting will be held at the Kansas City, Kansas Public Schools Central Office located at 2010 N. 59th Street in Kansas City, Kansas.

Commissioners Jane Philbrook, Melissa Bynum and Harold Johnson will be joined by UG staff, Hunter Harris and representatives with Lane4 development. Lane4 Development will deliver a brief presentation on proposed development ideas for 26 acres of the 100 acre site.

If you're interested in getting an update on Indian Springs and would like to share your ideas on what your vision is for this location, please join us at this meeting as we work together to plan for the future.
