I. POLICY

To provide a safe, secure, and humane environment for staff and persons lawfully incarcerated by the criminal justice system. The jail commander should formulate and maintain a written statement defining the facility's mission, operational philosophy, and goals.

II. PROCEDURE

The Detention Center shall:

- A. Maintain a climate in the facility cognizant of detainee welfare, including medical, religious, social, emotional, and physical needs.
- B. Maintain standards which are consistent with operation mandates as advocated by federal, state, and local existing laws and correctional standards.
- C. Provide consistent and fair treatment of staff and detainees.
- D. Ensure that personnel are prepared and capable of taking responsible and professional action when emergencies occur.
- E. Provide a systematic and operational approach for managing staff and detainees without violating individual rights or breaching the security of the facility.
